4. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c).
The incident in question took place in this District in Kings County.

JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff demands a trial by jury in this action pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure (“FRCP”) 38.

PARTIES

6. At the time of the incident in question, which took place in Kings County, New York, Plaintiff resided in Kings Count in the State of New York.

7. Defendant City of New York was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant City of New York maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter “NYPD”), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, the City of New York.

9. Defendant NYPD Officer Arturo Gomez (“Defendant Officer Gomez”), Shield No. 14128, and Defendant NYPD Officers John and Jane Doe 1-3, at all times relevant herein, were duly sworn officers, employees and agents of the NYPD and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties. Officer Defendants are sued in their individual capacities.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned Defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the Defendants were done by said Defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by Defendant City of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

12. On or around March 11, 2014, Plaintiff was in her apartment.

13. Plaintiff's niece Shaniqua, who had given birth to a baby approximately three days before, was staying with her.

14. At approximately 9:00 pm, Plaintiff left the apartment building.

15. Shaniqua remained in Plaintiff's apartment with the baby.

16. At approximately 9:00 pm, ACS employees arrived at the apartment building with Defendants in tow.

17. On information and belief, Shaniqua had spoken to ACS employees earlier in the day when ACS employees indicated that they wished to visit, ostensibly to deliver provisions for the newborn.

18. Defendants approached Plaintiff as she was walking away from the apartment building and Defendants asked her to let them into the apartment building.

19. Plaintiff asked Defendants why they were stopping her and asked Defendants why they could not leave her alone.

20. Plaintiff did not open the door to the apartment building for Defendants.

21. Plaintiff continued walking away from the apartment building as she had been when Defendants first approached her.

22. One of the Defendants said "Cuff her ass," referring to Plaintiff.

23. Defendants then arrested Plaintiff.

24. Defendants did not have probable cause to arrest Plaintiff for any offense.

25. None of the Defendants intervened to stop Plaintiff's false arrest.

26. Plaintiff was jailed for over twenty-four hours before she was arraigned.

27. On the basis of Defendant Officer Gomez's transmittal of false statements to the District Attorney, Plaintiff was charged with Obstructing Governmental Administration in the Second Degree ("OGA").

28. On July 30, 2014, a state court judge adjourned the OGA charges against Plaintiff.

29. Plaintiff suffered damages as a result of Defendants' false arrest. Defendants unconstitutionally deprived Plaintiff of her liberty, damaged her reputation and caused her emotional trauma.

30. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising of its employees, and due to a custom, policy and/or practice of: arresting innocent persons in order to meet “productivity goals,” or arrest quotas; arresting individuals for professional advancement, overtime compensation, and/or other objectives outside the ends of justice; and/or manufacturing false evidence against individuals in an individual effort and also in a conspiracy to justify their abuse of authority in falsely arresting, unlawfully stopping and maliciously prosecuting those individuals.

31. The aforesaid incident is not an isolated incident. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct as documented in civil rights actions filed in the United States District Courts in the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York as well as in New York State courts. As a result, Defendant City of New York is aware (from said lawsuits as well as notices of claims and complaints filed with the NYPD’s Internal Affairs Bureau and the CCRB) that many NYPD officers, including the Defendants, arrest individual persons in order to meet productivity goals and arrest quotas; arrest individuals for professional advancement, overtime compensation and/or other objectives outside the ends of justice; and/or falsely arrest individuals and engage in a practice of falsification of evidence in an attempt to justify the false arrest.

32. The Honorable Jack B. Weinstein, United States District Judge for the Eastern District of New York, has written that [i]nformal inquiry by the [C]ourt and among judges of this [C]ourt, as well as knowledge of cases in other federal and state courts, has revealed anecdotal evidence of repeated, widespread falsification by arresting police officers of the [NYPD] . . . [T]here is some evidence of an attitude among officers that is sufficiently widespread to constitute a custom or policy by the [C]ity approving illegal conduct of the kind now charged.

Colon v. City of N.Y., Nos. 9 Civ. 8, 9 Civ. 9, 2009 WL 4263362, at *2 (E.D.N.Y. November 25, 2009).

33. Former Deputy Commissioner Paul J. Browne, as reported in the press on January 20, 2006, stated that NYPD commanders are permitted to set “productivity goals,” permitting an inference of such a custom or policy encouraging deprivations of individuals’ constitutional rights in cases such as this one.

34. Defendant City of New York is thus aware that its improper training and customs and policies have often resulted in a deprivation of individuals’ constitutional rights. Despite such notice, Defendant City of New York has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused Individual Defendants in this case to violate Plaintiff’s constitutional rights.

35. Moreover, on information and belief, Defendant City of New York was aware, prior to the incident, that the Individual Defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, Defendant City of New York has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

36. All of the aforementioned acts of Defendants, their agents, servants and employees were carried out under color of state law.

37. All of the aforementioned acts deprived Plaintiff of the rights, privileges and immunities guaranteed to citizens of the United States by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

38. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned Individual Defendants in their capacities as police officers, with the entire actual and/or apparent authority attendant thereto, pursuant to the customs, usages, practices, procedures and the rules of the Defendant City of New York and the NYPD, all under the supervision of ranking officers of said department.

39. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of the respective municipality/authority, which is forbidden by the United States Constitution.

40. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be fixed by a jury, plus reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action.

56. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of Defendant City of New York and the NYPD included, but were not limited to, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training and supervising of its employees that was the moving force behind the violation of Plaintiff's rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of the Defendant City of New York to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline and supervise its officers, including the Individual Defendants, Defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

57. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of Defendant City of New York and the NYPD included, but were not limited to: arresting innocent persons in order to meet “productivity goals,” or arrest quotas; arresting individuals for professional advancement, overtime compensation, and/or other objectives outside the ends of justice; and/or manufacturing false evidence against individuals in an individual effort and also in a conspiracy to justify their abuse of authority in falsely arresting, unlawfully stopping and maliciously prosecuting those individuals.

58. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the Defendant City of New York and the NYPD constituted deliberate indifference to Plaintiff’s safety, well-being and constitutional rights.

59. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of Defendant City of New York and the NYPD were the direct and proximate cause of the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff as described herein.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request the following relief:

D. Awards to Plaintiff of the costs of this action, including reasonable attorneys' fees;

E. Such further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
